SUBCOMMITTEE

1. After line 33, introduced insert

E. The Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court shall develop and implement a process for courts to receive information regarding a defendant's dates of incarceration to ensure that no interest accrues in any court during periods of incarceration and that any interest that has accrued is waived automatically without action by the defendant. Any facility where a defendant has been incarcerated shall report the defendant's dates of incarceration in accordance with the process established by the Office of the Executive Secretary.
